Speakers Profile

Rantai ak Naga

Mr. Rantai Naga is the Covering Head of Bank Negara Malaysia Office Kuching. He has served the Bank since 2006 in several departments including the Foreign Exchange Policy Department, Economics Department and the LINK & Regional Offices. Mr Rantai has been instrumental in the establishment of the Corporate Surveillance Unit of the Foreign Exchange Policy Department, as well as in pioneering the economics surveillance in Sarawak. He is currently spearheading the financial development and surveillance to facilitate the implementation of BNM's strategic initiatives in the Sarawak region. He holds both Bachelor and Master of Economics from University of Malaya and is a Certified Expert in Financial Inclusion Policy (Alliance for Financial Inclusion-Frankfurt School of Finance & Management).

Gloria Tsan Ern Hui

Mrs. Gloria is a Manager with over 13 years of experience at Bank Negara Malaysia. Having obtained a degree in Economics from the University of Chicago through the Bank's prestigious scholarship programme, she began her career in the Economics Department, where she developed advanced analytical and research expertise in international economic analysis and macroeconomic surveillance. In 2017, she transitioned to the Regional Office in her cherished hometown of Kuching, Sarawak. At BNM Office Kuching, she now leads efforts in supporting monetary policy through in-depth regional economic surveillance and research. A key part of her role involves engagements with local industry players to capture real-time economic sentiments and provide valuable insights that inform strategic policy decisions.
